

Anisha Patel

Associate

anisha.patel@acuitylaw.com

+44 (0)7961 785 926

ABOUT

Anisha is an associate in the firm's real estate department. Her legal career began in October 2013 when she joined Acuity as a legal assistant. She qualified into the firm's Real Estate department in October 2016 and has experience advising clients on a broad range of property transactions.

EXPERTISE

- Advising on landlord and tenant matters
- Advising on property aspects of real estate finance transactions
- Advising on acquisitions and disposals
- Advising on property aspects of corporate transactions
- Advising on commercial and residential developments

WORK

- Assisting senior fee earners with the ongoing regeneration of Central Square, Cardiff for Cardiff based property developer, Rightacres Property Co Limited
- Advising healthcare outfit, Babylon Partners Limited and Babylon Healthcare Services Limited in relation to the re-gear of its head office occupation in Chelsea, London and lettings of various office and clinical operations nationwide
- Advising lender Zorin Finance Limited in relation to the property aspects of funding various residential developments
- Advising and assisting with a £200m mixed use residential, affordable housing and secondary school development in Southwark, London
- Acting for Portman Healthcare Limited on the property aspects of its nationwide dental acquisitions