

Adam Williams

Solicitor

adam.williams@acuitylaw.com

+44 (0)7966 182 222

ABOUT

Adam is a solicitor at Acuity and provides support and assistance to the corporate team on various contentious and non-contentious matters.

Before joining the firm, Adam gained valuable experience at a variety of law firms including Linklaters, Mayer Brown, and Simmons & Simmons as well as in-house at global asset management firm Barings.

EXPERTISE

- Corporate deals and transactions – mergers, acquisitions and disposals
- Shareholders' agreements and investment agreements
- Private equity funded transactions
- Commercial projects and contracts

WORK

- Assisting a senior fee earner in relation to the sale of OneChocolate Communications by US-based Allison+Partners
- Assisting a senior fee earner in relation to advising on a client's early-stage fundraising, including eligibility for investor tax relief under the Enterprise Investment Scheme
- Assisting a senior fee earner with the sale of London-based UX design agency Webcredible to digital consultancy and software development company Inviqa
- Assisting a senior fee earner with the sale of public affairs consultancy company Westbourne Communications to Cicero Group
- Assisted a fee earner in relation to the landmark case of GPP Big Field LLP & GPP Langstone LLP v Solar EPC Solutions SL [2018] EWHC 2866 (Comm) in which our clients were awarded a combined sum of over £1.7m (plus interest and substantial interim costs)