

Aisha Wardell

Partner

aisha.wardell@acuitylaw.com

+44 (0)7976 927 001

ABOUT

Aisha is an experienced commercial litigator and specialises in providing advice on high value commercial disputes.

Aisha acts for clients across a wide range of industries, in both High Court litigation and international arbitration. She also has a strong track record of dealing with sector disputes including energy and sustainability, public procurement and information technology.

EXPERTISE

- Commercial contract disputes
- Procurement challenges
- Restructuring and contentious recovery work
- Banking disputes
- Director and shareholder disputes
- Professional negligence
- Defamation, privacy and reputation management

WORK

- Successfully defending an injunction application arising from a six-figure claim for breach of contract.
- Loches Capital Limited v Goldman Sachs International [2020] EWHC 2327: Successfully acted on behalf of Loches Capital Limited in a pre-action disclosure application against Goldman Sachs International.
- Acting for trustees of, Elim Gospel Alliance in relation to their interest rate swap claims against Lloyds Bank Plc.
- Amey Highways Ltd v. West Sussex County Council [2019] EWHC 1291 (TCC): advising WSCC in its defence of a £28 million procurement challenge brought by disappointed bidder
- Acting for a group of shareholders in their claim against a pension company for deferred consideration following the sale of a renewable energy plant.
- Instructed in relation to a multi-million pound arbitration in the London Court of International Arbitration.